

Media Ministry Employment Opportunity

The Opportunity: To be part of the Living Light News Team, publishing an award-winning evangelical Christian newspaper with a 16-year track record and over 300,000 readers.

Our Publication: Delivered into evangelical churches and to homes by Canada Post, Living Light News shares the Good News of Jesus Christ while promoting unity among Christians. Published 6 times a year through three editions of 25,000 copies each, Living Light News features powerful testimonies of famous Christian athletes and entertainers along with local news, reviews and other interesting content.

Our Ministry: God has raised up our unique non-profit evangelistic ministry to impact lives for Jesus Christ. We are based in South Edmonton. Expansion, both in terms of print editions and social media, are priorities for the ministry, so we're looking for talented, hard working team members who can help advance the ministry and help us impact more lives.

Writer / Editorial Coordinator

If you're a gifted writer who would love to use your talents for God — and be paid to do so — we have a phenomenal opportunity! This varied position includes writing news and feature stories for print and online editions of Living Light News, plus much more.

In terms of the writing side of the position, a degree in English combined with post secondary journalism education and experience is ideal. However, we recognize there are many talented writers out there who don't have such formal education or experience, so we're willing to train in terms of journalistic writing. Although it's not currently necessary, the ability to edit stories could eventually open the door for work in that area as well.

In addition to writing, the position includes proofing layouts, finding stories, and coordinating editorial content. Like a reporter, you'd stay on top of what's going on within the Christian communities we serve. That's done through emailing and phoning people. Once an interesting story is found and fleshed out, you would either write the story yourself or assign it to one of our freelance writers. You would also arrange a photography shoot for the story. Other areas needing coordination include our book, music and movie reviews.

A talented writer who is organized, hard working, and works well independently, would make a great fit for this unique opportunity in our ministry.
